Masterclass

MENTORING AND DEVELOPING THE SKILLS OF EXTRAORDINARY FEMALE STUDENTS

Are you looking to make an extraordinary career out of your problem-solving skills? The 2024 Lead to Inspire program is here to help exceptional female students start their careers on the right foot.

Designed to support and encourage you to enter a field where women are traditionally underrepresented, this program aims to inspire you through personal impact stories and equip you with the leadership skills you need to make it in top-tier consulting.

As a participant, you will get exclusive access to our Lead to Inspire Masterclass and be paired with a personal mentor. Your mentor will be personally invested in your success and will guide you through this exciting field.

This mentorship includes providing you with all the information you need to make the career choices that are right for you, as well as assisting you in interview preparation. To help you understand why Bain consistently ranks among the best places to work, you'll also get to meet a variety of different Bainies.

If you are a bachelor student graduating in 2025 or later, we encourage you to apply before October 2, 2024.
